

Phil the Fluters Ball

D G D

Have you heard of Phil the Flu - ter, who could nev - er pay the rent? When ev - er he was down and out with out a sin - gle cent. He would cir - cul - ate a not - ice to his neigh - bours one and all As to how he'd like their com - pan - y that eve - ning at a ball. And when writin' out he was care - ful to sug - gest to them, That if they found a hat of his con -

G D A7 D

G D F#7 Bm D G A7 D

F#7 Bm D F#7

Bm E7 A7 D F#7 Bm D

ven - ient to the door, The more they put in, when - ev - er he re - ques - ted them The bet - ter would the mu - ic be for batt - er - in' the floor. With the toot of the flute, and the twi - ddle of the fidd - le - O! Hopp - ing in the midd - le, like a herr - in' on the grid - dle - O!

A7 D

G D G D A7

D G A7 Bm D7

Up! down, hands ar - ound, cros - sing to the wall - O!

D F#7 Bm D Em7 A7 D

Had - n't we the gai - et - y at Phil the Flut - er's Ball.